That same day I had the chance to meet with Factor Member Thorsten Frings. I don't travel very much anymore, but when I do I love meeting Factor Members

Note to members:

I am preparing to travel and will not have my computer access during trip.

I have already covered today a number of trades.

Hopefully by noon I will post on the web site the status of my portfolio with stops listed

I will release an update of Factor Prop portfolio before closings. Stopped out of much today. Positions as of this post are

Long 50% ETH

Long 50% BTC

Long 50% MYMH24

Long 100% MNQH24 - as of today, C&H being completed with Friday strength

Long 50% IDR

Long 50% URA

Long 50% GLD

Stopped out of all interest rate positions

Will be completely away from markets until the middle of next week

Note on continuation chart rollovers

I had an alert (which triggered a market order) based on the NQ-057 chart. The alert triggered, but only because the Mar contract replaced the Dec, showing an O57 breakout. However, BO did not occur on other charts. I've lightened up
