Possible Darvas box

FactorMembers @factor_members · Feb 26

Bitcoin. I am now long spot Bitcoin based on the completed pennant/Darvas box. This pattern in and of itself is not a stand-alone signal. This pattern could become the launching pad for an upthrust through the upper boundary of the huge channel.

Day in review

Only one completed chart on my screen today - Bitcoin. Bought a 50% position. Taking a hunch that small pennant might lead to something much bigger.
