Please remember:

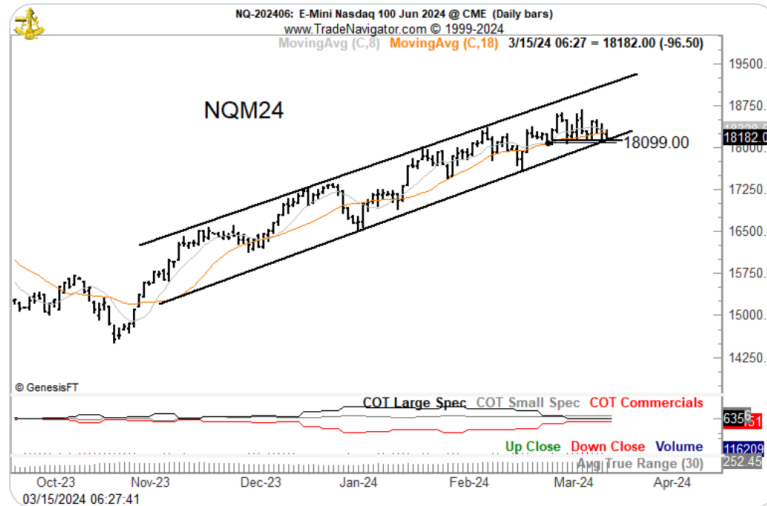

I deal in chart set ups, not market opinions

When wrong I change my mind quickly

I assume 50% of my trades will be losers

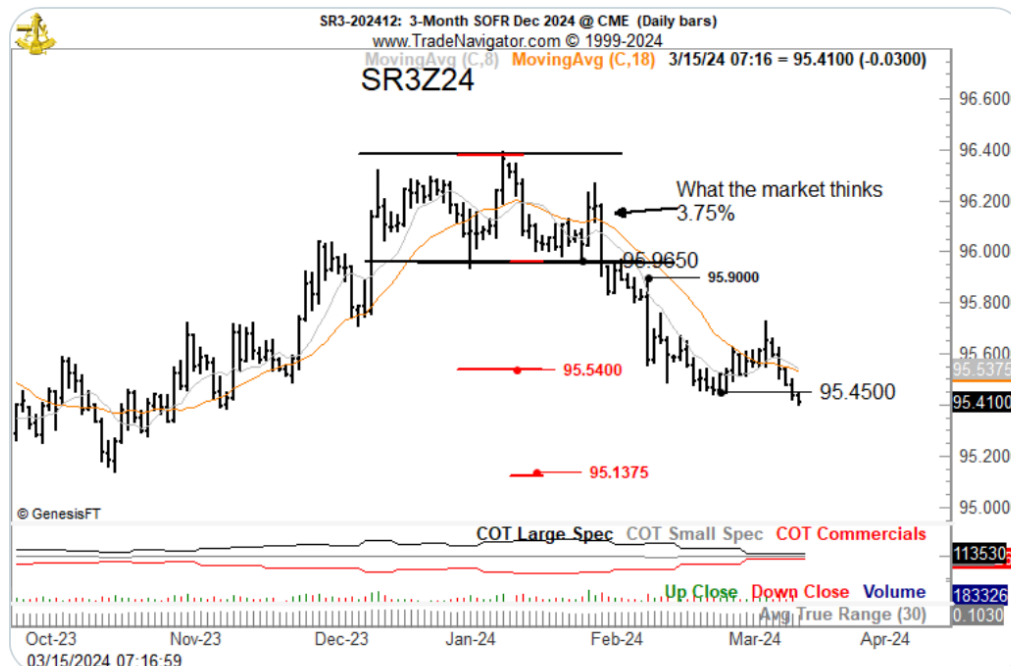

A case can be made for a short swing trade in NASDAQ

Swing trade set ups should NOT influence opinions/positions of longer term investors

In my active days I would have considered this new low in SOFR3Z24 as a sell signal

I count this as an anticipatory breakout in Jun Brent Crude
